

Biography - Cynthia Bracy, RHIA, CCS-P

Cynthia Bracy is a member of the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) and the Illinois Health Information Management Association (ILHIMA), where she currently serves as Director of Advocacy and Legislation. She holds a BS of Health Information Management and is currently pursuing her Master's of Public Health Informatics from the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Cynthia, is an adjunct instructor for Colorado Technical University- Online. She has worked as a health information management specialist in the Chicagoland area since 2005. Her experience includes: physician audit, outpatient surgical coding, INGENIX software implementation, and EPIC software interface testing. Ms. Bracy has been employed with the AAD since 2008.